In November 2018, Simpson Housing Services was identified as the shelter operator for the Navigation Center. Given Simpson’s decades of experience providing shelter, housing, support, and advocacy to people experiencing homelessness, the agency was recognized as a leader in the field, strongly suited to serve in this role.

67 individuals did not achieve positive housing outcomes but remained shelter and supportive services at the Navigation Center. These individuals were working diligently toward housing.

13 individuals had a housing move-in date at the closing of the Navigation Center. These individuals were offered beds at a shelter or stayed with family temporarily while they waited till their housing move-in date.

At the time of closing, 22 individuals were still actively working towards a housing placement option and were offered a bed at a shelter.

The Navigation Center was a ground-breaking approach to help people experiencing homelessness in our community. The learnings and outcomes realized through the development and operation of the Navigation Center can inform the process of creating future 24/7 low-barrier, service-enriched shelter models in the Twin Cities and across the nation.
